

Enjoying the Trees

George Washington liked to walk around the lawns and woods at Mount Vernon. Today you see Mount Vernon as he wanted it to look—with serpentine walks along the Bowling Green and shady groves of trees. Several of the trees planted by George Washington still survive. Others are the same type that he had 200 years ago. Can you find the names of these trees? Look forward, backward, up and down.

American Elm
Chestnut Oak
Crabapple
Dogwood
Holly
Horse Chestnut
Locust

Pecan
Pine
Sassafras
Sugar Maple
Tulip Poplar
Weeping Willow
White Ash