

1 An ACT for establishing the Temporary and Permanent Seat of the Government of the United 2 States.

3 BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in 4 Congress assembled, That a district of territory, not exceeding ten miles square, to be located as 5 hereafter directed on the river Potomack, at some place between the mouths of the Eastern-6 Branch and Connogochegue be, and the same is hereby accepted for the permanent seat of the 7 government of the United States: Provided nevertheless, That the operation of the laws of the 8 state within such district shall not be affected by this acceptance, until the time fixed for the 9 removal of the government thereto, and until Congress shall otherwise by law provide.

10 And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be authorized to appoint, and 11 by supplying vacancies happening from refusals to act, or other causes, to keep in appointment, 12 as long as may be necessary, three commissioners, who, or any two of whom, shall under the 13 direction of the President, survey, and by proper metes and bounds, define and limit a district of 14 territory, under the limitations above-mentioned; and the district so defined, limited and located, 15 shall be deemed the district accepted by this act, for the permanent seat of the government of the 16 United States.

17 And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or any two of them shall have power to purchase 18 or accept such quantity of land on the eastern side of the said river within the said district, as the 19 President shall deem proper for the use of the United States, and according to such plans as the 20 President shall approve, the said commissioners, or any two of them shall, prior to the first 21 Monday in December, in the year one thousand eight hundred, provide suitable buildings for the 22 accommodation of Congress, and of the President, and for the public offices of the government
23 of the United States.

24 And be it enacted, That for defraying the expence of such purchases and buildings, the President
25 of the United States be authorized and requested to accept grants of money.

26 And be it enacted, That prior to the first Monday in December next, all offices attached to the 27 seat of the government of the United States, shall be removed to, and until the said first Monday 28 in December, in the year one thousand eight hundred, shall remain at the city of Philadelphia, in 29 the state of Pennsylvania; at which place the session of Congress next ensuing the present, shall 30 be held.

31 And be it enacted, That on the said first Monday in December, in the year one thousand eight 32 hundred, the seat of the government of the United States, shall, by virtue of this act, be 33 transferred to the district and place aforesaid: And all offices attached to the said seat of 34 government, shall accordingly be removed thereto by their respective holders, and shall, after the 35 said day, cease to be exercised elsewhere; and that the necessary expence of such removal shall 36 be defrayed out of the duties on imposts and tonnage, of which a sufficient sum is hereby 37 appropriated.

38 FREDERICK AUGUSTUS MUHLENBERG, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

39 JOHN ADAMS, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

40 Approved, July the sixteenth, 1790.

41 GEORGE WASHINGTON, President of the United States
